Conversation phrases

Instructions

If you will do (or did) conversations before writing, then during your writing time write phrases that you wanted to say -- that is, phrases that you should have said.

If you will do (or did) writing before conversations, then during your writing time write phrases that you plan to say.

You misplaced your student ID card in your classroom. Ask a classmate for help.

You: Ask if they have seen your student ID card.

Classmate: "Sorry, no. Where did you last see it?"

You: Say you placed it on your desk in this classroom.

Classmate: "It's not on the desk, it's not on the floor, and it's not in the drawer. Did you look in your bag?"

You: Say you emptied your bag but still couldn't find it.

Classmate: "Maybe it's sandwiched in your book?"

You: You open your notebook ... and there's your ID card!

Classmate: "Congratulations!"

You: Be friendly, grateful, and relieved.

Phrase review

Instructions

Your objective is to review the phrases you learned so far. During your writing time, read the following text, and write appropriate words or phrases in the blanks. There are often many phrases that are correct. Choose one that you like. If you need more room, write in the margins. You may use any book, tool, or device. You may ask friends for help.
